

Cornerstone Christian Academy

Christ-centered education makes a difference!

Admissions Procedure

Cornerstone Christian Academy is rooted in evangelical Christianity, and our parents agree with the integration of Biblical principles into the education of their children. All families are welcome at Cornerstone Christian Academy; however, all families are expected to comply with the policies and regulations of the school, the Statement of Faith, and the Student Covenant. To ensure that harmony exists between what is taught at home and at school, parents will be required to attend an admissions meeting conducted by the principal. Students may be asked to attend the meeting.

Admission to Cornerstone Christian Academy is based on the following:

- The family's desire for Christian education
- The family's alignment with our mission and vision
- The ability of the school to meet the student's academic and social needs
- Available classroom space

GUIDELINES

1. Parents interested in registering their children at Cornerstone Christian Academy should make arrangements to visit our school and learn about the programming.
2. The Registration Package must be filled out completely and the following must be attached: a copy of the most current report card, any special needs assessments. If in kindergarten, a copy of the Birth Certificate must also be submitted. Entrance exams may be given at the discretion of the principal.
3. The principal will make arrangements to meet with the parents and possibly the student once the registration package is complete.
4. Parents will be informed of the acceptance or decline of their registration after the complete application has been reviewed and parents and students have had a meeting with the principal.
5. Students who will be five years old by December 31 may register in Kindergarten, and students who will be six years old by December 31 may be registered in Grade One.
6. Admitted families are on a probation period for three months. At the end of the three-month period, the principal and the staff will assess the progress of the student.
7. Priority in the admission of individual children will be given to families whose children are currently registered and to the children of staff members employed by the school.
8. As part of the application, parents are asked to include a letter of reference from their pastor.
9. The principal has the authority to determine the grade placement of each student registering or reregistering in the school. This will be determined by review of the report card, and if necessary, additional placement testing.

Cornerstone Christian Academy Student Covenant¹

According to the Bible, parents are responsible for the training of their children (Deut. 6: 1 -7. Prov. 22:6; Eph. 6: 1-4). Cornerstone Christian Academy serves as partners in providing an excellent education consistent with biblical truth. Harmony between home and school provides the best environment for godly training to take place. We seek to nurture development of the following essential character traits in the lives of our students.

INTEGRITY: Maintaining a lifestyle that is above reproach.

A person should be honest, moral and trustworthy in all dealings (Titus 1:8; Job 27:5; Prov. 11:3; 1 Kings 9:4; Ps. 15).

RESPECT: An attitude that highly esteems those in properly placed authority.

Parents, teachers, employers, governmental authority and church leaders have been placed in our lives by God. God gave a biblical command to honour them for our own good. (Rom. 13:1-7; Heb. 13:7; 1 Peter 2:13-21; 1 Thess. 5:12-13).

OBEDIENCE: The outworking of the attitude of respect.

We are to obey God and all those He has placed over us in our lives. When we obey we show love and respect for God and the authorities He has ordained. Our lives then will be long and fruitful as He has promised (John 14:21; Eph. 6:1-4; Rom. 13: 1-7; Prov. 6:23).

SELF-DISCIPLINE: The ability to control one's thoughts and actions.

The goal is to have a life under control --- self disciplined by the Spirit of God (Gal. 5:22-26; Job 5:1 7, Prov. 16:53, 25:28; 1 Tim. 4:7&8).

GODLY LIVING: A lifestyle that exhibit's the fruit of the Spirit and flees from the acts of our sinful nature.

Our standards are found in God's Word and our desire must be one with God and His holiness (Gal. 5:16-26; 2 Tim. 2:22; 1 Peter 1 :13-16, 2:9-10; 1 Cor. 6:12-20; Prov. 23:29-35; Phil. 4:4; Rom. 8:6-8).

WISDOM: Understanding what is true from God's perspective, and doing what is right.

Wisdom comes from God and our respect for Him. It is developed in our lives by our proper response to correction. If we do not respond to correction with a teachable spirit, the Bible calls us fools and unable to attain wisdom (Prov. 1 :7, 20-33; Prov. 2:1-22; Prov. 4:7).

RESPONSIBILITY: Being dependable and accountable in all relationships and tasks.

We are accountable to each other to love, encourage confront comfort and forgive. Furthermore, initiative, intellectual integrity and excellence should be the marks of all tasks we attempt (1 Cor. 13; Matt. 1 8:15-17; Gal. 1-5; Eph. 5:29-32; Eccl. 9:10).

THANKFULNESS: Developing an attitude of gratefulness.

We are thankful for everything God brings into our lives. Knowing that God's dealings in our lives are intended for our "good" we will help create an attitude of gratefulness for the things others do for us (Phil 4: 6.7; 1 Thess. 5:1 8, Col. 2:7; Eph. 5:20).

SERVICE: A spirit of humility in focusing on the needs of others.

Christ is our example of living a life that is not self-centred but rather seeking ways to serve not rule (Eph. 5:2 1 ; Phil. 2:3- 1 1 ; James 4:6,10).

ETERNAL VALUES: A focus that is upward.

The key is to live each day with the realization that only what is done for eternity counts (James 4: 14; Matt. 6:33. Matt. 6:19- 21).

Covenant Response Form
Cornerstone Christian Academy

For all Parents

We are in support of the School Vision and Purpose, objectives, standards of conduct and the principles of this covenant and agree to have our child(ren) taught at CCA according to these principles.

If at any time we can no longer work together in a spirit of unity and under the guidelines of the School Vision and Purpose document, and all reasonable avenues of communication are exhausted, we will withdraw our child(ren) from Cornerstone Christian Academy.

We understand that willful disobedience by our child(ren) to these principles and the guidelines outlined in the school handbook may result in dismissal from Cornerstone Christian Academy.

For grade 7-12 Students

I desire to attend Cornerstone Christian Academy and am willing to be under the authority of my parents in submitting and deferring to their wishes concerning enrolment at Cornerstone Christian Academy.

I understand that Christian teachers are in partnership with my parents. I will strive to obey them also as they seek to train me according to God's Word.

I will seek to live a godly life in and out of school in order that Jesus Christ will be glorified.

I understand that wilful disobedience to these principles and the guidelines outlined in the school handbook may result in my dismissal from Cornerstone Christian Academy.

(Each student need sign only once).

For the school

The faculty and staff of Cornerstone Christian Academy pledge by God's grace to uphold the principles of this covenant and CCA guidelines as we together train your children.

Cornerstone Christian Academy – Technology Acceptable Usage Agreement

General Access

Access to CCA computer systems and network is a privilege, not a right. These privileges may be removed for anyone, at any time.

Without exception, no student will have access to the systems or internet without written permission (form) of a parent or guardian.

All users are responsible to abide by and accept this policy. Noncompliance will result in suspension or termination of privileges and other disciplinary actions consistent with the CCA discipline policy.

CCA will cooperate with law enforcement of any level in any investigation concerning or relating to misuse of the schools computer systems. CCA will also report any events to law enforcement as required by law (illegal activities/child pornography).

Privacy/Confidentiality

No user at CCA have any expectation of privacy/confidentiality in the content of electronic communications or other computer files sent and received on the school computer systems or stored in his/her directory. The System Administrator may at any time review the subject, content, and appropriateness of electronic communications or computer files.

Disclaimer of Liability

CCA' computer system is connected to the internet and while CCA does its best to filter, block and supervise objectionable content and sites it is possible that users may be exposed to unwanted material. It is impossible for any network system to block all objectionable content, and CCA is not responsible for any information found or displayed on the internet. CCA is not responsible for ensuring the accuracy or usability of any information found on the internet.

CCA cannot guarantee 100% system availability. In the event of an outage, students are still responsible for completing assignments using computers either at home, or at a location where computers can be utilized such as a public library.

CCA is not responsible for any lost student data, and students must ensure that files are backed up on personal memory keys.

Termination of Access

CCA may at any time suspend the rights and responsibilities of any user upon violation of the General and/or acceptable usage policies. Termination or suspension of access may at the discretion of the board, last up to the remainder of the school year. While access is revoked, users are responsible for completing assignments or work on time using systems either at home, or at a local library.

Responsibility of the User

The user agrees:

- NOT TO
 - Use the computer system for illegal, inappropriate, or obscene purposes, or support said activities
 - Attempt to fix, attempt repair, or otherwise in any way modify the computer systems (including adding small network switches to “split” the connection with out consent from the System Administrator(s))
 - Participate in plagiarism, or infringement of copyrights (downloading music/illegal videos)
 - Waste network space, internet bandwidth, printer paper/toner
 - Download, install, or run programs not authorized by the System Administrator(s)
 - Circumvent, work around, bypass, or tamper with system security. That includes internet filtering, file blocking, administrative rights, etc.
 - Use any account other than assigned to the user
 - Participate in chat rooms, forums, or send chain letters
 - Harm, or attempt to harm another users account, data or work
 - Participate in cyber bullying of any kind (Includes, chat, email, social networking sites)
- TO
 - Use the systems for research, homework, and classes
 - Treat the system with respect, and a privilege
 - Leave any web site immediately if inappropriate content is found, and to report it to the System Administrator(s)
 - Report all problems to the System Administrator(s)
 - Utilize computer systems in ways that glorify God and build up our neighbours

Consent to this form allows the user access to the computers systems at CCA, and access to the Internet. This form is to be completed yearly. No access will be allowed until a signed form is submitted to and processed by the System Administrator.

CORNERSTONE CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

2024/2025 Student Permission Form for Outings in Kingman

There are times throughout the year that the teachers and students of Cornerstone Christian Academy will venture off of school grounds and into the community of Kingman, AB.

Some of the activities that students may participate in are nature walks, running for gym class, activities at the hall, Kingman ball diamond, Kingman rink, Kingman museum, soccer field and/or activities at the local churches in town.

Please complete this permission form, which grants blanket permission for students to participate in all local outings within Kingman during the current school year (September through June). Classroom teachers will still let you know about the outings and what the students may need for them, but you will not be required to fill out forms for each event.

This will cut down on administrative paperwork and enable us to get out into the community more.

I, _____, give my permission for _____ (printed parent/guardian name) (printed student name)
to leave the school grounds with their class for activities in the Kingman community throughout the 2024/2025 school year.

Signed: _____
